Requirement ID not implemented	Description
UR1	Users have no need to report bugs as of yet as there is no goals or rewards.
UR2	The user is assigned to a ship that they can control and then this is connected to a college.
UR3	As of yet there is no goal and objective with the game, this therefore means that there may be not a lot of enjoyment as there is no objective or game to complete.
FR3	In part, it can be resized but the objects in the window aren't
FR5	At the moment the firing of any weapons can happen at any time regardless of where the college is.
NFR1	There's no end game.
NFR4	Some options are implemented, but no menus have been made to change those options yet
Null ID	Each game play should have an objective. As of yet there's no objective yet, for the same reasons that were stated in NFR1.
Null ID	No sound effects or music.
